

Interested in playing a role in decisions for current and future services for the developmentally disabled?

Now is your chance! Albany Regional Office is now taking applications for the Regional Developmental Disabilities Advisory Council (RAC). The Council meets bi-monthly to discuss needs, current programs and future programs. This group plays a key role in planning for the future services for the developmentally disabled.

Those that are encouraged to apply:

- Individuals receiving Developmental Disability services
- Family members of individuals receiving services
- Providers of services
- SB40 Board Representatives
